

Business Law Databases

Current through August 9, 2007

Westlaw provides business law practitioners with a comprehensive library of databases covering all stages of work with a business client. This database list describes Westlaw databases that relate to subjects such as choice of a business entity, corporate governance, and mergers and acquisitions. Relevant materials include cases; general and state-specific treatises, practice guides, and forms; journals and law reviews; and current awareness materials.

For descriptions of databases pertaining to related topics, see Bankruptcy Law Databases, Commercial Law and Contracts Databases, Company Information Databases, Finance and Banking Databases, Securities Law Databases, or the online Westlaw Directory.
