

Commercial Law and Contracts

Current through July 20, 2007

Westlaw provides commercial law practitioners with a comprehensive library of databases covering the Uniform Commercial Code (UCC) and the law of contracts and collections. Case law and statutes databases cover the sale of goods and services, leases, commercial paper, bank deposits and collections (including creditor-debtor relations other than bankruptcy), funds transfers, letters of credit, bulk transfers, warehouse receipts, bills of lading, secured transactions, the statute of frauds, and the parol evidence rule.

In addition, the extensive collection of legal texts and periodicals on Westlaw provides practitioners with expert commentary and practice tips regarding commercial transactions, and Westlaw public records databases provide access to UCC filings, liens and judgments, and other adverse filings.

This database list contains descriptions of databases on Westlaw that pertain to commercial law and contracts. For descriptions of databases pertaining to related topics, see Business Law Databases, Company Information Databases, Finance and Banking Databases, or the online Westlaw Directory.
