

Government Contracts Newsletter Library

The Westlaw® Government Contracts Newsletter Library offers unlimited online access to Briefing Papers®, The Government Contractor® and The Nash & Cibinic Report®. The field's leading periodicals, these newsletters provide timely, reliable legal analysis of developments in government procurement and contracting that are important to businesses, policy-makers and government administrators.

NEWSLETTERS ALERT YOU TO CHANGES AND PREVENT DELAYS AND PROBLEMS.

The law applicable to government procurement is voluminous and constantly changing, so staying current is a challenge. The Government Contracts Newsletter Library simplifies and speeds your research with:

- Comprehensive, authoritative analysis and updating that helps you adapt to changes rapidly and skillfully
- Clear explanations of complex legal and administrative procedures so you can avoid mistakes and difficulties
- FREE admission to the Nash & Cibinic Report Roundtable and West Group's informative Government Contracts Year-In-Review Conference, both annual events that are CLE accredited
- Precise searching using Natural Language or Terms and Connectors
- Hypertext links to cited documents and related resources

THE THREE NEWSLETTERS ARE:

■ BRIEFING PAPERS

In each monthly issue of Briefing Papers, leading procurement professionals discuss a single topic of current interest. The in-depth coverage includes guidelines and references for additional research. The two January issues offer a review of the previous year's significant developments and a bibliography of the previous year's important writings about government contracting. Issues from January 1992 to the present.

■ THE GOVERNMENT CONTRACTOR

Issued 48 times a year, this newsletter delivers timely analysis and news about recent legislative and regulatory developments and decisions of the courts, the Board of Contract Appeal and the General Accounting Office. A 20-member board of procurement law experts advises West Group's attorney-editors in selecting significant information of value to you. Issues from January 1987 to the present.

■ THE NASH & CIBINIC REPORT

Noted government contracting experts Ralph C. Nash and John Cibinic provide thought-provoking discussions of current and controversial subjects in this monthly, 16-page newsletter. They not only notify you of changes in the law, but also suggest practical ways to deal with the changes. Issues from the publication's initiation in January 1987.

THE NEWSLETTER LIBRARY COMPLEMENTS THE GOVERNMENT CONTRACTS LIBRARY.

The Government Contracts Newsletter Library works well with the Government Contracts Library, which offers unlimited online access to procurement and contracting statutes, regulations and cases.

Included are relevant full-text provisions from United States Code Annotated®, the Code of Federal Regulations, Federal Register, Federal Acquisition Regulations, Board of Contract Appeals decisions, U.S. Supreme Court decisions, General Accounting Office Redbook and other sources.
