

EDITORIAL ENHANCEMENTS

The Westlaw difference

The legal landscape is ever changing. In fact, 200,000 cases (published and unpublished), 26,000 laws and 151,000 pages of legislation come from courts, judges and legislatures every year. So a legal research service that keeps you up to date on the latest changes is important. As is one that categorizes, organizes and summarizes the law so it's more accurate, more relevant and easier to understand. West's team of attorney-editors works hard to make sure Westlaw® is the premier legal research service in every aspect.

Here are some examples of West's editorial enhancements that you probably rely on every day to help you get better results faster:

Caselaw Enhancements

- Headnotes – West attorney-editors craft one for every specific point of law covered in every published opinion
By the numbers: 450,000 headnotes categorized into the West Key Number System® every year
- West Key Number System – The de facto classification system for all American law
By the numbers:
  - More than 400 topics and 93,000 points of law
  - 557,000 classifications added every year at an average of 8.3 classifications per case
- Case Synopses – One-paragraph summary of each case to help you quickly decide if it's on point
- Added Search Terms – Synonyms, acronyms, terms of art, generic names and legal relationship terms – so your search terms don't have to match the judge's terms verbatim
By the numbers: 150,000 search terms added every year
- Court Corrections – West attorney-editors work closely with the courts to identify and correct errors ranging from incorrect citations or misspellings to substantive factual and legal inaccuracies
By the numbers:
  - 700,000 statute citations checked, 10,000 corrected every year
  - 1.5 million case citations checked, 80,000 corrected every year
  - 100,000 caselaw errors identified and corrected every year

Statutes and Regulations Enhancements

- Indexes – The industry's only online alphabetical statutes and CFR indexes
By the numbers: More than 1 million references categorized by topic and linked to CFR sections
- RegulationsPlus® – The online version of the industry's only annotated CFR
- Notes of Decisions – A brief summary of the important cases that interpret your statute, and links to the full text for each case
By the numbers: More than 1.2 million and counting in the USCA and CFR alone
- Historical Notes – Shows you how your statute evolved
- Cross References – Links to more resources

KeyCite® Enhancements

- Up-to-the-Minute Updates (for Caselaw and Beyond) – The only online citator that goes beyond caselaw to also provide warning flags for statutes and regulations
By the numbers:
  - Within 4 hours, a case's direct history is available on KeyCite*
  - Within 24 hours, overruled cases are identified*

*Based on averages from when attorney-editors receive new court opinions.

EDITORIAL ENHANCEMENTS

About West Attorney-Editors

Virtually the minute an opinion is handed down from any court, a team of West attorney-editors is analyzing and dissecting it, trying to make it easy to find and easy to understand. West has hundreds of licensed attorney-editors on staff with, on average, more than 10 years of experience in the profession. Every West attorney-editor is grouped into one of three teams:

Caselow Attorney-Editors – Headnote classifiers are closely aligned with a specific practice area so they know their assigned area of law inside and out.

Statutes Attorney-Editors – Dedicated 100% to statute annotations, and aligned with specific jurisdictions in order to master the unique nomenclature and style of various state legislatures.

KeyCite Editors – Dedicated to keeping KeyCite the most complete, accurate and up-to-the-minute citation service.

For more information: contact your West representative, call 1-800-REF-ATTY (1-800-733-2889)
or visitwest.thomson.com

BETTER RESULTS FASTER.

Westlaw®

THOMSON REUTERS™