

Top Westlaw Exclusives

Authoritative online resources for legal practitioners

West has been providing authoritative legal materials for decades and, in Westlaw®, offers exclusive online access to many of the same titles you have relied on for years. Westlaw also gives you the convenience of unparalleled linking and searching capabilities, as well as free research assistance from bar-admitted reference attorneys 24 hours a day, seven days a week, 365 days a year. And KeyCite® – the most complete, accurate, and up-to-the-minute online citator – ensures you're relying on good law. Here are a few legal resources found only on Westlaw:

Wright & Miller Federal Practice and Procedure

The cornerstone of every federal practice library, the online version of this multivolume set answers your federal practice and procedure questions with thoughtful, current analysis written in clear, concise language. With more case annotations than any other West title, this comprehensive resource is also easily searchable through its quick-reference deskbook and table of contents.

Williston on Contracts, 4th

Williston on Contracts, 4th, provides comprehensive coverage and analysis of contract law and the reasoning behind it, especially in judicial decisions. Coverage includes contract formation, agreements, illegal agreements, statute of frauds, interpretations, conditions, excuses for nonperformance, and more.

Corpus Juris Secundum® (CJS®)

America's first legal encyclopedia is available online exclusively on Westlaw. In it, you'll find coverage of more than 400 legal topics including civil and criminal, substantive and procedural, state and federal. Each CJS article not only provides the principles of applicable law, but also gives you a full range of authority as well.

Causes of Action (COA®)

Causes of Action provides authoritative articles and substantive and practical overviews of hundreds of causes of action – including the elements of a prima facie case, defenses, parties, damages, and procedural matters, along with extensive authority, practice guides and checklists, sample cases and pleadings, research references, and discussions of related causes of action.

American Jurisprudence Trials

Am Jur® Trials is the most comprehensive lawyer-to-lawyer guide available today for winning settlements and trials. Each article features actual cases, which showcase the winning techniques and strategies of the trial attorneys, judges, and legal experts in the case.

American Jurisprudence Proof of Facts

This database provides comprehensive guidance from practitioners and scholars who are experts in proving the fact or set of facts necessary to support a client's cause of action or affirmative defense. It covers litigation issues in torts, real estate, employment, commercial law, and many other civil and criminal areas. It also includes sample discovery forms, checklists, and testimony.

American Jurisprudence Pleadings and Practice Forms Annotated

Am Jur® Pleading and Practice Forms Annotated provides over 37,500 forms covering every stage of state and federal litigation.

American Jurisprudence Legal Forms

American Jurisprudence Legal Forms enables clear, accurate, and informed application of more than 22,000 transactional legal documents, including forms, clauses, and checklists. It provides text discussions, finding aids, commentary, and practice aids, as well as a table of contents for the entire database.

West's Legal Forms

West's® Legal Forms provides extensive transactional forms, commentary, checklists, analysis, and expert guidance in many major areas of law. It is organized around major legal topics and includes an extensive collection of forms vital for drafting transactional legal documents.

Court Transcripts

Court Transcripts on Westlaw includes the transcripts of appellate oral arguments, as well as lower court trials including opening statements, closing statements, voir dire, lay testimony, expert testimony, motion hearings, or other related transcripts from state and federal courts. Selected transcripts also provide access to the audio or video recordings of the proceeding.
