

WESTLAW PATENTS: CHARGEABLE LINKS IN THE LEFT FRAME

US Patent Family Tree 1.

Graphical Claims History 2.

Patent File History 3.

Office Actions and Related History 4.

Claims Versions 5.

1. You incur a charge when you click the US Patent Family Tree link and call up a family tree for the patent you are viewing. Highlight any patent within a family tree and you see links in the left frame related to the highlighted patent. You incur an additional charge if you click any of the related links.
2. When you click the Graphical Claims History link, you incur a charge to view the claims-history diagram. Links in the diagram take you to specific claims versions; there is an additional charge for clicking any of these links.*
3. When you click the Patent File History link, you incur one charge that covers viewing, printing and saving all listed PDFs.
4. Click one of the Office Actions and Related History links, and you incur a charge that covers your viewing of all Office Actions and Related History documents for the patent.
5. Clicking a Claims Versions link incurs a charge covering your viewing of all patent versions, including redlining.*

*Claims versions can be accessed from the Graphical Claims History link and the Claims Versions links. If you access the content through one link, you will not be charged again to access it through the other links.

Patent File History PDFs can be accessed from the Patent File History link and from the Office Actions and Related History links. If you access the content through one link you will not be charged again to access it through the other links.